From the Leiden Gazette, dated Sept. 1.

Basil, Auguſt 23.

ALL the Inhabitants of the Cantons of Switz are to hold next Week a Landsgemein, or general Aſſembly, to give their Votes for or againſt their Canton's renewing the Alliance with the State of Milan. In the mean time the Marquis of Puiſieux and of Bereti Landi, Ambaſſadors of France and Spain, uſe their utmoſt Efforts to make that Affair ſucceed as they deſire. The Marquis de Bereti Landi, leaving no ſtone unturn'd to procure himſelf to be own'd Ambaſſador of Spain by the whole Helvetick Body, has prevail'd with the Government of the State of Milan, to forbid their Subjects to have any Commerce with the Subjects of the Canton of Zurich, under an arbitrary Penalty (i. e. ſuch Puniſhment as the Caſe of every Offender ſhall be judg'd to deſerve;) in hopes this means will have a better Effect upon that Canton in particular, than all the Artifices he has hitherto us'd. The Cantons of Lucern, Ury, Switz, Underwald, and Zug having drawn up a Letter which they propoſe to ſend to the Potentates engag'd in the preſent War, to exhort them to Peace; have caus'd Copies of the ſame to be ſent to each of the other Cantons, to be ſubſcrib'd by ſuch of them as ſhall approve it, in order to its being ſent away as deſign'd.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Sept. 3.

Baſil, Auguſt 27. The Regents of Zurich being inform'd that the Government of the State of Milan have not only forbid their Subjects to trade with thoſe of Zurich, but have caus'd all the Effects belonging to the latter, that could be found in the State of Milan, to be ſeiz'd; have thought fit to uſe Repriſals, and order'd all Effects belonging to Subjects of the Milaneze that can be diſcover'd in their Canton to be ſeiz'd; and accordingly a conſiderable Quantity of Goods ſent by Merchants and Tradeſmen of Milan to the Fair of Zurzach, has been ſeiz'd as it was carrying thro' the Territory of Zurich. This Affair makes no little Noiſe, and 'tis talk'd will occaſion a Meeting of the Proteſtant Cantons at Arau very ſpeedily. The Cantons of Zurich and Berne have not yet agreed to the Propoſals of the Reſident of Venice, for renewing the Alliance with that Republick; but that of Zurich have drawn up certain Articles upon which they are willing to renew that Alliance, which Articles they have ſent to the Regents of Berne for their Approbation, and if that Canton approves them, they will then deliver them to the Venetian Reſident, to ſend them to their Principals for their final Reſolution. Mr. Stanion Her Majeſty of Great Britain's Envoy Extraordinary to the Swiſs Cantons, arriv'd Yeſterday at Schaffhuyſen, where he was complimented by the Magiſtrates, and from thence purſu'd his Journey to Zurich.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated September 8.

Warſaw Auguſt 22. The pretended new King Staniſlaus arriv'd here the 14th of this Month, with one of the Princes of the Houſe of Sapieha, the King of Sweden's 3 Commiſſioners, and the Biſhop of Caminieck who was ſome time ago taken Priſoner by the Swedes. The 17th the King of Sweden arriv'd here at the Head of 8000 Men. The 18th he view'd the Camp of Viazdow, and afterwards that of Blonia. He has left General Reinſchild on the Frontier of Silefia with a Body of 10000 Men, to oppoſe the Return of King Auguſtus into Poland with his Saxon Troops; And his Majeſty appears reſolv'd to paſs the Viſtula very ſpeedily over a Bridge of Boats that he has caus'd to be laid, in purſuit of a Body of Poles Lithuanian and Saxons, who at his Approach retir'd towards the Bugh 11 Leagues from hence. The Diet has not ſat ſince the 11th Inſtant, having adjourn'd from one time to another, they ſtand now adjourn'd to the 25th of this Month. Letters from Wilna in Lithuania, dated the 16th of this Month adviſe, that the Day before the Czar of Muſcovy ſet out from thence, with the Count of Mainſchikof and a Detachment of 25000 Men of his Troops; and is marching to Courland with deſign to clear that Country of the Swediſh Forces commanded by General Lowerhaupt; that he has left at Wilna his Court and Bagge as alſo 2000 Men under the Walls of that Place commanded by General Ogilvi; that at his return from this Expedition he propoſes to march this Way with all his Troops and a Train of Artillery of 150 Pieces; and that the Hereditary Prince his Son ſet out from Wilna the 15th to return to Moſcow.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated September 8.

Warſaw, Auguſt 25. The 22d Inſtant at Night, the Mother and Wife of King Staniſlaus arriv'd here. The King of Sweden has demanded of this City, over and above the Proviſions they furniſh daily, a Summ of 120000 Tymphes. Our Magiſtrates deputed ſome Perſons to remonſtrate to him that the City is unable to raiſe that Summ; but he would take no Excuſes, and the Money muſt be collected. The Deputies that compoſe the Diet, had a ſecret Conference to Day in the Cloyſter of the Bernardines: Their meeting in Diet is adjourn'd till a further time. Two Articles are to be added to the Treaty that is negociating between the Republick of Poland and the King of Sweden; by one King Staniſlaus is to declare his Approbation of that Treaty, and by the other both he and the Republick are to engage in a Confederacy with the King of Sweden againſt the Czar of Muſcovy, till the end of this War. We hear no Talk at preſent about the Cardinal Primate, but 'tis ſaid the Archbiſhop of Lemberg is to come hither to crown King Staniſlaus; and that the King of Sweden will not ſtir from hence till that Coronation be perform'd.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated Sept. 8.

Dreſden, Sept. 2. The King of Poland, who is here at preſent, has receiv'd Advice by an Expreſs that General Mazeppa who commands the Coſſacks, is arriv'd with an Army of 60000 Men in the Neighbourhood of Lemberg, and that he will continue his March towards Sendomir, where he will wait for Orders from his Poliſh Majeſty, purſuant to the Treaty he has made with the Czar. The Forces the King of Sweden has with him about Warſaw, are in number 12000 Men. Thoſe he has left on the Frontier of Silefia under the Command of General Rhsnſchield

Reinſchild, amount to 14000. The 29th of laſt Month a Camp was form'd of 9 or 10 Regiments near the Town of Sorau in the lower Luſatia, where General Steinau and other Officers arriv'd the 25th. 'Tis reported the Swedes are in Motion too in the Neighbourhood of Meſeritz, and that they threaten to attack our Troops on this ſide the Oder. The 4000 Muſcovites that had their Winter Quarters in Luſatia, are march'd from Gorlitz for Lubben, where they are to be joyn'd by 2 or 3 Regiments of Dragoons.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated Sept. 8.

Frankfort, Sept. 2. Advice being brought hither of the Prince of Baden's poſſeſſing himſelf of the Enemies Lines at Haguenau a few days ago, Monſieur Geldermalſen ſent order to the Pruſſian Troops that were marching towards Brabant to halt; and diſpatch'd Brigadier Tettau to the Prince of Baden, to inquire whether he might want thoſe Troops to execute his Deſigns. The 31ſt of laſt Month, Monſieur Geldermalſen receiv'd a Letter from the Duke of Marlborough, to countermand the ſaid Troops, becauſe he had no need of them; and to acquaint him that the States General had reſolv'd to ſend to Italy the 4000 Wittembergers, that now ſerve under the Prince of Baden, to reinforce Prince Eugene of Savoy's Army. Hereupon the Pruſſian Troops are on their March back to the Upper Rhine; their Horſe are to repaſs the Main to day near Mentz. 'Tis reported here that the Marſhal de Villars had a Deſign to defend the Lines of Haguenau, but came a Quarter of an Hour too late. He encamp'd his Army however, with the Right at the Town of Haguenau, and the Left at Biſweiler, with a ſeeming Reſolution to ſtand Battle; but our Army advancing the 30th of Auguſt to attack him, or to cut him off from Strasburg, he thought beſt to retire towards that Place, whither he had before ſent his Baggage. The 2 Armies are now encamp'd at no great diſtance from each other; Prince Lewis waits for his heavy Artillery. We have receiv'd Advice, that 1500 Men of the Contingent of the Circle of Saxony, will paſs the Main to Day in their Way to the Upper Rhine.
